“JCSS was formed to bring cutting edge technology to medicine. One demo of Radekal and JCSS Management knew it wanted to help bring this solution to market. Radekal is a decade ahead of anything on the EHR market. The release of the cloud-based Radekal will transform our industry. JCSS is pleased to be a part of the Pertexa team”, JCSS Management states.

“JCSS saw a demo of our product, Radekal, and the deal was inked two hours later. Even with a very short demo, JCSS realized this is not an EHR that doctors have learned to hate but rather, a transformative productivity tool built by Doctors for Doctors. It is designed just the way they were trained in medical school. It’s as simple as that”, Kishor Joshi, Pertexa CEO commented.
